

An adventure with hotel nights to experience intensely the two faces of Greenland: on the one hand its ultimate nature with navigation between icebergs and under glacier fronts or trekking on a million-year-old glacier tongue.

After a short plane trip from Iceland we will arrive at Greenland, the largest island in the world, located in the unexplored Arctic and blessed with extraordinary and wild beauty. We will find ourselves in a new world waiting to be discovered, where roads are the exception and where nature is practically unchanged.

GUARANTEED DEPARTURES

Day 1 Reykjavik-Narsarsuaq

Reception at the airport and transfer to the hotel for check-in and information session. Excursion: Trekking of approximately one hour to a hill near the hotel where the Narsarsuaq viewpoint is, where the views of the Kiattut glacier and the Eriksfjord icebergs await us. Free time to walk around Narsarsuaq. Night at the Narsarsuaq hotel. Double / twin room with private bathroom.

Day 2 Trekking of Valley of Thousand Flowers Qaqortoq

Breakfast. We will dedicate the morning to one of the most famous trekking in southern Greenland, the Valley of a Thousand Flowers. It is an ascent maintained through a beautiful valley until you see the Kiattut glacier and its imposing glacier river. An exciting tour in zodiac of great power will take us from Narsarsuaq to Qaqortoq. There are 2 intense hours of travel between icebergs and gorges, with a view of small islands that adorn a magical landscape. After this experience we will disembark in the beautiful city of Qaqortoq, where we will take a guided tour of the city.

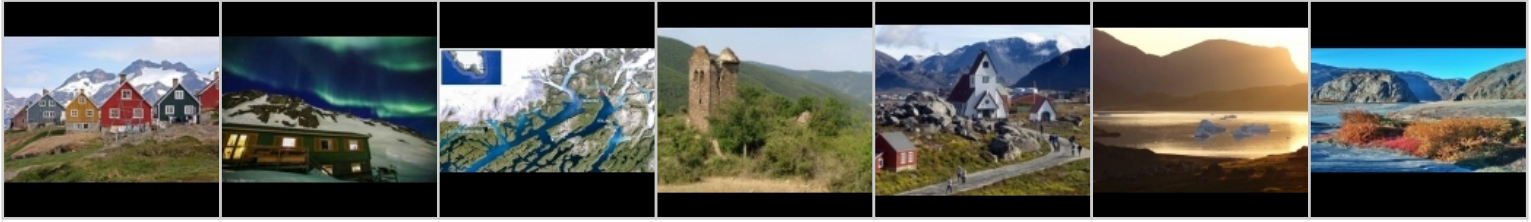

Accommodation at the Qaqortoq hotel. Double room with private bathroom.

Day 3 Trekking or excursions optionals Qaqortoq

Breakfast. Free time in the morning to make a small trekking excursion around Qaqortoq or possibility of an optional excursion: Excursion to the Hvalsoy church (Eur 116 per person - min. Of 4 pax) The church of Hvalsoy was built in the fourteenth century and is considered the best preserved church of that period. People came to this church from far away to participate in the different Christian events held throughout the year. Recently this area has been declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO.

Accommodation at the Narsaq hotel. Double / twin room with private bathroom.

Day 4 Qaleraliq Glacier Camp and ice excursion - Narsaq

Breakfast. We will begin sailing in a semi-rigid boat towards the Qaleraliq glacier camp, in the foothills of the Inlandis or Greenland Polar Cap. Arrive at a comfortable and magical camp installed on an elevation of fine sand, enjoying a spectacular view of three glacier fronts falling into the waters of the fjord. While there, we will soon be surprised by the sound of ice cracking in the distance, similar to Glacier fronts and ice excursion. Depending on the weather, we will have a picnic lunch at the glacier itself or at the Qaleraliq camp. In the afternoon transfer by boat to the city of Narsaq.

Overnight at the Narsaq or Narsarsuaq hotel. Double / twin room with private bathroom.

Day 5 Narsarsuaq - Reykjavik

Breakfast. Free time to visit the local Blue West One museum, which reflects the history of the creation of Narsarsuaq and its role during World War II: a curious setback in time since everything, from typewriters to nursing, is located as it was seventy years ago. Flight billing and free time to buy souvenirs or take photos. Flight from Narsarsuaq to Reykjavik. We thank you for your presence in our circuit and wish you a good return to your land.

Rates in EUR

EUR 4860 per person in double from Reykjavik

EUR 808 single supplement

Rates valid

During the summer season 2024

Departures

The dates will be advised

Rates include

* Return flight Reykjavik-Narsarsuaq-Reykjavik

7/9 - 09/08/2024

- * All the transfers
- * Overnight in double/twinbedded room including breakfast
- * Excursions indicated in the program
- * The tour is operated in English and Spanish

NOT INCLUDED IN OUR RATES

- * airport taxes and emission costs on the flights between Reykjavik-Narsarsuaq-Reykjavik (approx. Eur 175 per person from Reykjavik)
- * All services not mentioned in "Included"

Important notice

Travel strengths:

- * Navigation on a sea full of icebergs, traveling next to the glaciers aboard a semi-rigid boat.
- * Take an excursion with crampons on one of the oldest frozen masses on the planet. Unique excursion in Greenland.
- * Visit the cities of Narsaq and Qaqortoq.
- * To verify, first hand, the effects of climate change in southern Greenland.

* Possibility of observing the magical and spectacular northern lights from mid-August on clear nights.

* Possibility of warning of local fauna: seals, eagles, caribou and foxes and arctic hares

* group size - maximum 12 passengers